Hungary is situated within the drainage basin of the River Danube, in the lowest part of the Carpathian Basin.

7 neighbouring countries

Flood plains cover close to one-quarter of the country’s territory, affecting 2.5 million inhabitants in 700 settlements.
The Water Management Act defines the tasks and responsibilities of the

- state
- municipalities
- sectors of economy
- relation to other acts
Directorates of Environment and Water structure of water administration

- Carpathian Basin
- Hungary
- 1-12 Env. and Water Directorate
- Regional water management (river basins, area of KÖVIZ)
- River engineering division (river section)
- Inspector (sub-riverbasin)
- Guarding area Rajka
- Guard (local)

Water management in water sheds