

The delegation for the urban flood management workshop :

1. Gerard Rundberg (director Waternet International) – delegation leader
2. Paulien Hartog (strategic advisor Waternet) – coordinator Flood Management workshop for Amsterdam, special focus on watergovernance challenges of dealing with extremes in stormwater, parttime member team Amsterdam Rainproof
3. Otto Ferf-Jentinck (senior advisor Waternet) – coordinator workshop Amsterdam-Paris on January 22th
4. Rob Koeze (strategic advisor Waternet) – special focus on Amsterdam flood management strategy and vital infrastructure related to the national Deltaprogramme
5. Camiel van Drimmelen (senior planner Physical Planning Department Amsterdam) – special focus on Amsterdam flood management strategy and urban planning related to the national Deltaprogramme
6. Martin Nieuwjaar (senior policy advisor Waternet) – special focus on flood management in the Amsterdam region and implementation of the EU Flood directive
7. Lot Locher (advisor in team Amsterdam Rainproof) – special focus on urban planning challenges of dealing with extremes in stormwater
8. Eljakim Koopman (policy advisor Waternet) – special focus on sewerage and tools for dealing with extremes in stormwater, parttime member team Amsterdam Rainproof
9. Saskia Holthuijsen (asset manager sewerage Waternet) – special focus on sewerage, challenge of optimizing the balance between quality, vulnerability and costs of the assets
10. Peter Jansen (program manager dike management Waternet) – special focus on IJkdijk, innovative dike monitoring by sensing
11. Frans van der Ven (teamleader Urban Water Management Deltares and associate professor Urban Water Management TU Delft) – special focus on tools (3Di), waterrobust urban development and recent Dutch Climate Proof Cities research
12. Jeroen Kluck (expert Urban Water Management Tauw b.v. and lector Water in and around the City Amsterdam University of Applied Sciences) – special focus on tools (WOLK) for dealing with extremes in stormwater
13. Florian Boer (director De Urbanisten) – functional and attractive design for urban flood management solutions (several Amsterdam pilot projects)
14. Pieter Jannink (partner MUST Urbanism) – pilot vulnerability of urban vital infrastructure for flooding in Amsterdam Westpoort